

Correction to: Linares M, Lambertucci M, Castellani M. Neurodevelopmental disorder with variable motor and language impairment (NEDMIAL): first case reported in Argentina

Arch Argent Pediatr. 2025;123(6):e202510669

doi: <http://dx.doi.org/10.5546/aap.2025-10669.eng>

In the originally published article, errors were identified in the description of the genetic variant and in the author list.

In the Abstract, the sentence:

After three years of multidisciplinary follow-up and after ruling out common causes of infantile hypotonia, a de novo mutation in DHX30 was confirmed, and the diagnosis of NEDMIAL was established.

It should say:

After three years of multidisciplinary follow-up and after ruling out common causes of infantile hypotonia, a pathogenic variant in the DHX30 gene (c.2344C>T) was confirmed, and the diagnosis of NEDMIAL was established.

In the Case description, the sentence:

In July 2024, in collaboration with the Genetics Laboratory at the Universidad Nacional de Córdoba, a diagnosis of neurodevelopmental disorder with variable motor and speech impairment was confirmed, associated with a de novo mutation in the DHX30 gene (OMIM: 617804).

It should say:

Exome sequencing confirmed the diagnosis of an autosomal dominant neurodevelopmental disorder with variable impairment of motor and speech functions, associated with a pathogenic heterozygous variant (c.2344C>T; p.Arg782Trp) in the DHX30 gene (OMIM 616423).

Additionally, four authors were inadvertently omitted from the original publication.

It should say:

Manuel Linares<sup>1</sup>, Micaela Lambertucci<sup>2</sup>, Sofia Savy<sup>3,4</sup>, Laura Laróvere<sup>2</sup>, Guillermo Guelbert<sup>2</sup>, Juan P. Nicola<sup>3,4</sup>, Mateo Castellani<sup>2,5</sup>.
